

GUEST LECTURE

AWG- Africa Working Group

“Nelson Mandela’s Style of Conflict Management”

Guest Lecturer:

Dr. Eliakim Sibanda
Professor and Chair of History Dept.,
University of Winnipeg.

March 28, 2014 at 11:00 AM.

Mauro Centre for Peace and Justice (RM 249), St Paul’s
College, University of Manitoba

The Africa Working Group (AWG) is a consortium of faculty, graduate students and practitioners across the globe working to transform conflict issues that affect the continent of Africa.

For more information about AWG, please visit our website at: www.africaworkinggroup.net.

For specific questions concerning this event, please contact :
Obasesam Okoi at: okoio@myumantoba.ca

Eliakim Sibanda, Ph.D

“Dr. Eliakim Sibanda is an Professor of History and Director of the Institute of Human Rights and Global Studies at the University of Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada where he teaches Africa History and Human Rights and Global Studies courses. He received his Ph.D. in Social Change - specializing on human rights- from Denver University and Iliff School of Theology and a second Ph.D. in History from the University of Colorado in Boulder, United States. Sibanda's research interest areas are: African Liberation Movements, History of Agrarian Policies (focus on communal land tenure and Peasant Agriculture), Biographical History; Oral History; Migration and Migrant Labour History of Southern Africa; Ethnicity, Race, Gender and Class in 20th Southern Africa. His latest book publication is The Zimbabwe African People's Union, 1961-1987: A Political History of Insurgency in Southern Rhodesia, 2005. Dr. Sibanda's latest article publications were three contributions to a peer-reviewed International Encyclopedia of Revolution and Protest published in 2008 by Wiley Blackwell. Currently, Sibanda is writing a book on one of the prominent Zimbabwean Nationalists and Statesmen, Dr. Joshua Nkomo. Sibanda is well travelled and has spoken and taught as a visiting professor at several Colleges and Universities around the world. His country of birth is Zimbabwe.”