

YOU ARE INVITED TO ATTEND THE

6th AWG Panel Discussion

"The Importance of Organizational Change Management."

Guest Speaker: Tunde Balogun

When: Friday, February 27, 2015 @ 11:00 AM.

Where: Peace and Conflict Studies - Mauro Centre for Peace and Justice (Room 249) at St Paul's College.

Note: Refreshment will be served after presentation.

Tunde Balogun's Bio

Tunde Balogun is a certified change management professional. He is recognized for visionary excellence and ability to develop organizational development strategy solutions in support of corporate goals. He is skilled in working collaboratively with clients to improve and transform existing processes. He brings a wealth of experience in developing and implementing strategic directions for business units in various industry sectors. His goal is to enhance and improve organizational effectiveness by educating, training and developing talent to increase their performance. Tunde holds a Bachelor's degree in Economics from the University of Greenwich, United Kingdom. He is a member of numerous professional associations and is involved in various community organizations in Canada.

Tunde will be speaking on "the importance of organizational change management" in the context of twenty first century Africa.

About Africa Working Group

The Africa Working Group (AWG) is a consortium of faculty, graduate students and practitioners across the globe working to transform conflict issues that affect the continent of Africa. For more information please visit our website at www.africaworkinggroup.net. For specific questions concerning this event, please contact Obasesam Okoi at: okoio@myumantoba.ca.